2. How is Job described for us in chapter 1:1-3?

3. Describe what Satan says about the Lord's relationship to Job, according to verse 10.

4. What restraint does the Lord put upon Satan, according to verse 12?

5. Outline the series of tragedies that hit Job in verses 13-19.

6. How did Job respond to this series of tragedies, according to verses 20-22?

7. What restraint did the Lord put on Satan, according to chapter 2:6?

8. How does Job's wife respond to all the tragedies in Job's life, according to verse 9?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Job was a man who in character was blameless and upright. In commitment he feared God and in conduct he shunned evil.

LESSON #2: Job was a good parent in caring for the spiritual needs of his family.

LESSON #3: Satan is limited by God's sovereign restraint.

LESSON #4: When the Lord talks about you, what do you think He is saying?

LESSON #5: The Lord does put a hedge about His children and blesses the work of their hands.

LESSON #6: The loss of his possessions and progeny all took place in one day.

LESSON #7: When the storm had passed, Job tore his robe, shaved his head, and worshiped the Lord.

LESSON #8: Suffering reveals the motivation of our sacrifices and service.

LESSON #9: Maintaining our integrity in the midst of the suffering delights the heart of God.

LESSON #10: The hardest trial for Job was probably the response of his wife.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER TWO – JOB 2:11-3:26

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 2:11-3:26 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

2. Why were Job’s three friends going to see him, according to chapter 2:11?

3. How did the three friends respond when they saw Job for the first time, according to verses 12 & 13?

4. What was Job’s initial response, according to chapter 3:3, 4?

5. What is Job's question, according to verse 11?

6. What happens at death for the wicked and the weary, according to verse 17?

7. How does Job evaluate the situation, according to verse 25?

8. What is Job's condition, according to verse 26?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: When you really hurt, the focus turns to friends.

LESSON #2: How many friends do you have who would drop everything and come in a moment if you had a need?

LESSON #3: Suffering presence is the powerful ministry of silent compassion.

LESSON #4: Grief is sometimes verbalized in wishes, in whys, and in whats.

LESSON #5: "Mayday" is the call of distress for ships at sea, planes in the air, and Job on the land.

LESSON #6: Job does not curse God but the day of his birth.

LESSON #7: Job's depravation, disease, and despair lead to depression.

LESSON #8: Job feels his way is hidden because he sees no purpose, no plan, and experiences no presence in his suffering.

LESSON #9: He has hedged me around that I cannot get out and made my chain heavy.

LESSON #10: Job's groans pour out like water.

LESSON #11: What he feared has come, and what he dreaded has happened to him.

LESSON #12: He has no peace, no quietness, no rest; but only turmoil.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER THREE – JOB 4:1-5:27

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 4:1-5:27 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

2. What question does Eliphaz ask of Job in chapter 4:2?

3. How has Job responded to his difficulties, according to Eliphaz in verse 5?

4. What should be Job's confidence and hope, according to verse 6?

5. What is the observation of Eliphaz, according to verse 8?

6. What kills a fool and slays the simple, according to chapter 5:2?

7. How does Eliphaz feel about man in general, according to verse 7?

8. What does Eliphaz feel that Job should do, according to verses 8 & 9?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: One of the best things we can do for a person experiencing deep grief is to be silent.

LESSON #2: It certainly does not help someone who is suffering to tell them to practice what they preach.

LESSON #3: To be discouraged and dismayed in a time of trouble is not what the Lord would want from us.

LESSON #4: The two things you need the most in suffering is confidence and hope.

LESSON #5: Assumptions as to the cause of someone else’s suffering can be devastating.

LESSON #6: Be very careful how you respond to someone who says, “I have a word for you from the Lord.”

LESSON #7: It is really not very helpful to tell someone what you would do in their situation.

LESSON #8: God does discipline and deliver His children in adversity.

LESSON #9: If there is unjudged sin in our lives, the safest thing to do is to cooperate with God’s discipline.

LESSON #10: We must be very sensitive to satanic counterfeits when it comes to visions, dreams, and direct mandates.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER FOUR – JOB 6:1-7:21

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 6:1-7:21 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Job in this passage is distressed, disappointed, despairing, and despising.

LESSON #2: Job would very much like to die, to bring an end to his present misery.

LESSON #3: Strength for the day and prospects for tomorrow are the keys to longevity in life.

LESSON #4: Job's suffering is intensified by the lack of love and loyalty on the part of his friends.

LESSON #5: Job’s friends are like dried up streams instead of refreshing encouragement.

LESSON #6: How painful are honest words.

LESSON #7: God’s sovereignty is seen in the allotment of months and the assignment of misery.

LESSON #8: Job feels like his life is passing swiftly away.

LESSON #9: Job has anguish of spirit and bitterness of soul.

LESSON #10: Job is so depressed that he despises his life, and he would not live forever if he could.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER FIVE – JOB 8:1-22

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 8:1-22 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

2. What three questions does Bildad have for Job in verses 2 & 3?

3. What advice does Bildad have for Job in verses 5 & 6?

4. What does Bildad tell Job to do, and why, according to verses 8 & 9?

5. What is the destiny of all those who forget God, according to verses 11-13?

6. How does Bildad characterize the hope of the godless ,according to verses 14 & 15?

7. What does God not do, according to verse 20?

8. What will God still do for Job, according to verse 21?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Bildad the Brutal really bombs and blasts Job in this speech.

LESSON #2: Bildad is suffering from a hardening of the categories.

LESSON #3: It is always wrong to club and clobber someone with the Scriptures when they are suffering.

LESSON #4: Bildad does not have all the facts, so he has no right to an opinion.

LESSON #5: Bildad tells Job that his children died because of sin.

LESSON #6: Bildad wants Job to repent before it is too late so God will be roused, restore, and not reject him.

LESSON #7: Bildad uses the past to explain the present.

LESSON #8: It is the height of arrogance to think that one knows what God is doing in the life of another.

LESSON #9: Bildad has failed to see Job as a hurting, lonely man who needs some affirmation and encouragement.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER SIX – JOB 9:1-10:22

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 9:1-10:22 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

6. What question is Job going to ask of God, according to verse 8?

7. What has God done for Job in the past, according to verse 12?

8. What does Job want God to do, according to verse 20?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: “For I say to you, that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven” (Matthew 5:20).

LESSON #2: It is only the righteousness of Jesus Christ that makes us acceptable in the presence of a holy God.

LESSON #3: God’s wisdom is profound, and His power is vast.

LESSON #4: When you are fighting against God, you are going to experience consequences from that conflict.

LESSON #5: He performs wonders that cannot be fathomed, miracles that cannot be numbered.

LESSON #6: Suffering makes us vulnerable to misunderstanding God's purpose and plan for our lives.

LESSON #7: There is one God and one Mediator between God and man, the man Christ Jesus.

LESSON #8: Job is in deep despair and is speaking out in the bitterness of his soul.

LESSON #9: Job does not have all the facts, so he has misinterpreted God's purpose and plan in all of this.

LESSON #10: Death can be a moment of great victory and triumph for the believer.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER SEVEN – JOB 11:1-20

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

8. Contrast the life of the righteous to the wicked, according to verses 18-20.

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Questions, confrontations, and accusations should never be part of the comforting process.

LESSON #2: Zophar, in his anger, has forgotten that Job is a very hurting, lonely man.

LESSON #3: Zophar assumes that if God would speak, He would speak against Job—but it will be against Zophar later in the passage.

LESSON #4: God’s wisdom has two sides: that which He sees from above, and that which we see from below; that which is revealed, and that which is unrevealed.

LESSON #5: Zophar says that Job has sinned even beyond the extent of his punishment.

LESSON #6: God’s wisdom and ways of doing things are far beyond us.

LESSON #7: Zophar accuses Job of being deceitful and doing evil.

LESSON #8: Job suffers verbal abuse from Zophar by some of the things that he says.

LESSON #9: The three R’s of Zophar’s solution are: 1) repent; 2) renounce; and 3) the rewards are yours.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

8. How does Job feel about man's life in relationship to the sovereignty of God, according to verse 5?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Job is weary of hearing words that do not apply to his situation.

LESSON #2: Job senses that he has become a laughingstock to his friends.

LESSON #3: God has your life in His hand, and He is giving you your next breath.

LESSON #4: God has wisdom, power, counsel, understanding, strength, and victory.

LESSON #5: God is the One who makes nations great, and He is the One who destroys them.

LESSON #6: Sometimes saying nothing in the face of grief is the greatest wisdom.

LESSON #7: It is sheer folly to speak for God to a suffering saint.

LESSON #8: Job is open and transparent before the Lord, giving Him an invitation to show him his sin.

LESSON #9: Man's days are determined, and God has set limits that cannot be exceeded.

LESSON #10: Job's view of life is distorted because of his deep depression.

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: How quickly we can turn from comfort to confrontation when we are dealing with a grieving individual.

LESSON #2: We must learn that it is possible to miss completely the whole purpose when we are trying to explain suffering in the life of another.

LESSON #3: How dangerous it is to make accusations in the face of grief.

LESSON #4: When it comes to suffering and sorrow, the safe place to be is to admit our ignorance as to God's purpose and plan.

LESSON #5: Venting one's anger is a healthy part of the grieving process.

LESSON #6: Eliphaz is on target when he speaks of the total depravity of man in verse 14.

LESSON #7: Eliphaz is arguing from the position of experience rather than from truth.

LESSON #8: The eighteen difficulties that are outlined in the concluding part of the speech of Eliphaz are the fruit of wickedness.

LESSON #9: "Be not deceived, God is not laughed at. Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

LESSON #10: "When sin is conceived, it gives birth to death" and not to life.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER TEN – JOB 16:1-17:16

NOTES

1. Read Job 16:1-17:16 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

2. How does Job characterize his friends, according to chapter 16:2, 3?

3. What would Job do for them if he were in their place, according to chapter 16:5?

4. What does Job say of God in chapter 16:7?

5. How does Job describe himself, according to chapter 16:17?

6. How does Job describe the rest of his life, according to chapter 16:22?

7. What three things does Job say about himself in chapter 17:1?

8. What two things will the righteous do in the midst of their suffering, according to chapter 17:9?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Job's friends had become confronters rather than comforters.

LESSON #2: They were indulging in long-winded speeches instead of silence and sensitivity.

LESSON #3: Job says, "If I were in your place, I would encourage and comfort you to bring relief."

LESSON #4: Job accuses God of assailing him and tearing him in anger.

LESSON #5: Job is suffering from physical and verbal abuse from folks who are around him.

LESSON #6: Job says that God shattered, seized, crushed, and hung him up as His target.

LESSON #7: Job speaks of God in an intimate way as “my witness, my advocate, my intercessor and my friend.”

LESSON #8: Job views his life as soon to be gone.

LESSON #9: We see Job’s depression in the three statements in chapter 17:1: 1) “My spirit is broken”; 2) “My days are cut short”; and 3) “The grave awaits me.”

LESSON #10: Job confesses three things: 1) “My days have past”; 2) “My plans are shattered”; and 3) “The desires of my heart are shattered.”

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER ELEVEN – JOB 18:1-21

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 18:1-21 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

5. What ultimately happens to the wicked, according to verse 7?

6. Describe what the wicked one has to look forward to, according to verses 8-12.

7. What happens to the wicked, according to verse 17?

8. Summarize the sad end of the wicked, according to verses 18-21.

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Affirmation can turn to argument if we are not on the alert.

LESSON #2: It is so easy to accuse others of being irrational.

LESSON #3: Anger is a normal part of the grieving process.

LESSON #4: Job's anger is three-fold: he feels he has been mistreated by God, misunderstood by his friends, and living in miserable circumstances.

LESSON #5: God is not in the business of making exceptions for anyone.

LESSON #6: Wrong premises and right promises will do great damage.

LESSON #7: The path of the wicked and the righteous are covered with traps put there by Satan.

LESSON #8: Sin, Satan and the system of this world are just three of those traps.

LESSON #9: Sin starts out below and then manifests itself above. It is first private and then public.

LESSON #10: God will have it His way!

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: Words from our lips can torment, crush, reproach and attack someone else.

LESSON #2: Job is saying that each of us will be accountable for our own sin.

LESSON #3: When exercising discipline over brothers and sisters in the body of Christ, it is easy to become self-righteous and to use the failure as a means of humiliation.

LESSON #4: Job’s cries have been met with silence and no justice.

LESSON #5: Job blames God for all that has happened to him.

LESSON #6: Job has lost all of his meaningful interpersonal relationships through his suffering.

LESSON #7: Job’s wife is not there to sympathize and support him but rather stays away.

LESSON #8: Job has barely escaped death so far.

LESSON #9: With the eye of faith, Job sees that his Vindicator lives and that in the end He will stand upon the earth.

LESSON #10: Does your heart yearn for that glorious day of manifestation?

LESSON #11: We will be held accountable for what we have said to others.

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: The tongue ought to be used with restraint when you have troubled thoughts and you are greatly disturbed.

LESSON #2: When you speak from wounded pride, you usually provide more heat than light.

LESSON #3: Zophar's message is a great statement of the future plight of the wicked.

LESSON #4: It is the right message for the wrong man.

LESSON #5: The painful cry of those who remain when the wicked dies is, "Where is He?"

LESSON #6: Aging forces us to give up youthful vigor and face the reality of the destiny of the dead.

LESSON #7: Sin is always sweet but the consequences are bitter.

LESSON #8: Sin has a fatal attraction that makes it hard to let it go.

LESSON #9: When it comes to wealth, we are going to leave it all behind.

LESSON #10: Job is falsely accused of oppressing the poor.

LESSON #11: The certainty of God's future judgment is very real.

LESSON #12: God does allot a sure fate for the wicked.

3. What is Job's evaluation of the wicked in verses 7-13?

4. How do the wicked respond to God, according to verses 14 & 15?

5. What is Job's wish for the wicked, according to verse 20?

6. What is the hardest thing to comprehend and understand about God's plan for our lives, according to verses 22-26?

7. What does Job say of his friends, according to verse 27?

8. What does Job think of his friends' counsel and advice, according to verse 34?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: When we just listen to the grieving person, we are giving comfort and consolation.

LESSON #2: Job's complaint is against God and not against his three friends.

LESSON #3: Job is frustrated by the thought that the wicked live long lives and keep on increasing in power.

LESSON #4: Since he has felt the severity of the rod of God upon him, he cannot understand why the wicked do not experience this same rod upon them.

LESSON #5: Many of the wicked spend their years in prosperity and go down to the grave in peace.

LESSON #6: The sad confession of the wicked is, "Leave us alone! We have no desire to know your ways."

LESSON #7: The wicked have no desire to serve God or to pray to Him.

LESSON #8: God has sovereign control over the days, months, and years of our lives.

LESSON #9: How foolish it is to think that we can teach knowledge to God.

LESSON #10: The two words that describe the three friends' contributions to Job's life to this point are the words "nonsense" and "falsehood."

ADDITIONAL NOTES:

STUDY NUMBER FIFTEEN – JOB 22:1-30

NOTES

QUESTIONS:

1. Read Job 22:1-30 and in your own words pull out the main thought of this passage.

2. What seven questions does Eliphaz ask of Job in verses 2-5?

3. How does Eliphaz explain Job's calamity according to verses 6-11?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: The Lord does take great delight in us when we walk with Him. He quiets us with His love, He rejoices over us with singing (Zephaniah 3:17).

LESSON #2: Eliphaz falsely accuses Job of great wickedness and endless sins.

LESSON #3: Eliphaz brings six false charges against Job to vindicate his own position.

LESSON #4: God is in the heights of heaven, and when we die we are going to die and be with Him if we have received Jesus Christ by faith.

LESSON #5: "All things are naked and open under the eyes of Him with whom we have to do" (Hebrews 4:13).

LESSON #6: There is a broad way that leads to destruction and a narrow way that leads to life, which are you choosing?

LESSON #7: Eliphaz misinterprets Job's words and then uses them against him.

LESSON #8: The 7 steps to recovery outlined by Eliphaz in the conclusion of his speech are great, but not relevant to Job.

LESSON #9: "Hitherto have you asked nothing in My name; ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be made full" (John 16:24).

LESSON #10: The ten promises made in the end of his speech are wonderful blessings for those who are successful in following the steps of recovery.

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: There are times in our lives when our complaint is bitter and we feel His heavy hand upon us.

LESSON #2: Many times in suffering we sense the lack of His presence.

LESSON #3: Job feels that God would be upright and fair in His judgment if He had all the facts.

LESSON #4: Job sees these experiences as a test to refine and ultimately purify him.

LESSON #5: Can you give testimony that your feet have followed closely His steps and that you have kept His way without turning aside?

LESSON #6: Do you treasure feeding on His Word more than you do on your physical food?

LESSON #7: God is sovereign and He does whatever He pleases.

LESSON #8: God has set a definite time and agenda for future judgment.

LESSON #9: Sometimes it seems like the wicked are getting away with their sin but God's judgment will ultimately and certainly fall.

LESSON #10: Are you presently walking in the light as He is in the light?

LESSON #11: God does drag away the mighty in judgment by His power.

LESSON #12: The wicked are exalted for a little while and then they are gone.

3. What is God's relationship to wisdom, according to verses 23 & 24?

4. How does God define wisdom and understanding, according to verse 28?

5. What is Job longing for in chapter 29:2?

6. Describe Job's life previous to this series of calamities, according to verses 3-17.

7. Summarize Job's future expectations, according to verses 18-20.

8. What was precious to those who saw Job prior to these calamities, according to verse 24?

9. What verse in the study has meant the most to you?

10. What lesson have you learned from this study?

LESSONS FROM THE PASSAGE:

What are some of the lessons we can learn from this particular study?

LESSON #1: There are five things that Job has found to help him negotiate the path of suffering: 1) trust in God; 2) the comfort of future resurrection; 3) the rod of discipline; 4) the test that reveals progress; and 5) the wisdom to effectively relate to what is happening.

LESSON #2: When you are looking for a way out, you do not need wisdom for a way through.

LESSON #3: God is the only One who knows where wisdom and understanding are located.

LESSON #4: Wisdom comes to those who seek His face.

LESSON #5: When the past quarrels with the present, there can be no future.

LESSON #6: Job is longing for eight things: God’s care, God’s guidance, his younger days, God’s fellowship, God’s presence, the return of his children, God’s blessing, and his past honor and respect.

LESSON #7: Job’s conversation and conduct were commended by others.

LESSON #8: Job was compassionately involved in the lives of those who were hurting and in need.

LESSON #9: “Righteousness” and “justice” were the clothes that he wore.

LESSON #10: Job was “like a tree planted by the rivers of water, bringing forth its fruit in season” (Psalm 1:3).

LESSON #11: Job’s words were edifying and encouraging to others.

LESSON #12: A smile is worth a thousand words.
